Why Do We Use This Calendar?

This calendar has been compiled to help anyone who desires to keep the Biblical festival days, holidays, fast days, and weekly reading schedule to help them gain a better understanding of God and His Word, while at the same time reading the Scriptures through in a year, including the Brit Hadashah (Re(New)ed Covenant).The first Biblical account of public Torah readings is found in Nehemiah 8 (after Israel returned from captivity in Babylon), where Ezra the scribe read aloud from the scrolls of the Torah to the entire congregation of Israel. This occurrence eventually led to weekly Torah readings in synagogues. As in the time of Yeshua (Jesus), even until today, the children of Israel still read the Torah Portions in a cycle, a portion each week, for the entire year. Because of this, Yeshua almost certainly would have followed the Torah Portions schedule and celebrated most, if not all, of the Biblical holidays and traditions listed on this calendar, especially those which are commanded by Scripture. We believe it is advantageous to follow the Torah portions schedule to learn more about the things of God from a Hebrew perspective, which can help us immensely with our spiritual growth. As a result, most of the terms on this calendar are often given in Hebrew transliterated terms with a translation and a short description. We can better appreciate how they all find their fulfillment in the Messiah as we learn about and celebrate them together as His Body and as His Bride.

Every Month -

Shabbat - (Hebrew: שַׁבָּת) "Sabbath", a holy convocation/ day of assembling (Lev. 23:3; Heb.10:25) beginning sundown Friday (Erev Shabbat) and lasting until sundown on Saturday. It is customary to assemble in a Torah-observing congregation on Shabbat for worship, Scripture readings, special blessings, meals, and fellowship. The word "Sabbath" occurs 96 times in the Tanakh (Torah, Prophets, Writings), and 59 times in the Gospels and Epistles (Mt.,Mk, Lk, Jn, Acts, Col.). Yeshua, our Master and Lord of the Shabbat (Mt. 12:8, Mk. 2:28, Lk 6:6), was recorded with regards to Shabbat at least 13 times.

Rosh Khodesh - (Hebrew: ראש חודש) "Head of the Month" is the celebration of the new month (Num. 10:10; Psa. 81:3), which symbolizes our spiritual renewal and rebirth in Messiah. If the ending Hebrew month has 29 days, one day of Rosh Khodesh is celebrated; if the ending Hebrew month has 30 days, two days of Rosh Khodesh are celebrated. It is customary to recite a special blessing to the Lord on Rosh Khodesh when you see the crescent of the new moon in the night sky.

Khodesh [Shabbat] Mevarkhim – (Hebrew: שבת מברכים) "The Shabbat [when] we bless [the new month]" occurs directly before Rosh Khodesh, the evening (Erev Shabbat) service (in certain synagogues) and/or Shabbat day service may feature announcing the beginning of the new month with special blessings, liturgy, etc.

Holidays This Month -

Underlined (linked) holidays on the digital PDF calendar will direct you to HebCal (the Hebrew Calendar site) or another website which will give some more detailed information about those holidays. Please note: Not all sites linked are Messianic sites and may not reference Yeshua as we do, but the information can be helpful for observing Biblical holidays that are at the root of Messianic Judaism, the faith of Abraham, and the faith of Yeshua our Messiah, the King of the Jews, of whom we are a part through the Renewed Covenant in His blood.
