
Mayim Khayim "Living Waters" A Messianic Synagogue

Member and Visitor Information Card

We are so thankful you are here today. We hope you feel welcome to worship and fellowship with us here. Our Shabbat services are held at 2pm on Saturday afternoons, with a meal following the service. To keep order at all times, we ask members and visitors to abide by the Statement of Faith/Code of Conduct on website/vestibule. We would appreciate it if you could please take time to fill out the front and back of this card with as much information as possible so that we may learn about you and keep in contact with you about festivals and other events. Your information will be kept confidential. The bottom portion may be torn off so that you may contact us with any questions. Please place this completed card in the Mayim Khayim box before you leave today. Thank you so much and may God bless you!
